

Spotlight on Women in Privacy™

Lauren Misztal, Associate General Counsel & Data Privacy Officer, Mallinckrodt Pharmaceuticals

What do you love most about being a privacy professional?

The regulatory and legal framework is changing every day, and I am constantly confronted with new, novel questions/challenges. Working on data privacy permits me to support nearly every aspect of our business and engage with colleagues across the Company.

What was the best professional advice you ever received?

Ask more questions than you answer. Listen more than you speak.

What one privacy development are you paying close attention to this month?

The claim being brought by Digital Rights Ireland re the Facebook breach.

How do you unwind from work?

Playing with my two young sons. Also taking a quick run, playing golf or doing yoga!
